SPECIAL APPEALS – GRADE MEDICAL OFFICERS – 2013 JULY

Having given the due consideration to the appeals sent by Grade Medical Officers, following transfers are hereby ordered with immediate effect. But release will be done once proper replacement is available or suitable internal arrangement could be made.

Medical Officers who wish to cancel the given order, are requested to do so within two weeks of this letter. If the transfer order is cancelled, they will not be eligible to apply for another special appeal transfer for a period of two years.

At least, one year active service period in the permanent station (except for maternity leave) will be compulsory to get the release for transfer order.
